Registration Policies –Please read carefully

-First registration period:

- is for current students, or private students (see below*)
- Dates for registration will be established per season
- once the 2nd registration period starts (below), if you haven't registered, you will be considered a New or Non-current student
- first come first served

-Second registration period

- is for non-current, or new students-
- dates for registration will be established per season
- first paid and registered, first served

-Wait lists will be developed as follows:

- 1) Class openings will be given first to students currently registered in same class (eg. you're in Friday now, and you want the Friday class next session)
- 2) The next class openings will be given to students currently registered in a different class (you are in Wednesday, and want to switch to Friday, or add Friday)
- 3) *the next openings will be given to students who have purchased and paid for private sessions at Sweetwaters within the current session (minimum purchase should be equal to or more than the cost of 1 class session)
- 4) the next openings will be given to students who have previously attended yoga at Sweetwaters within the last 12 months
- 5) the next openings will be given to new students

-Registration is confirmed when Payment and Registration form are received-no exceptions

-Registration will be confirmed by e-mail unless otherwise requested.

-Start date reminder will be e-mailed the week prior to your first class

-Session purchase is applied to current session only (except in the case of the purchase of 2 sessions in a row)

-Unused classes are non-transferrable to other season sessions, or persons

-In Studio seasonal sessions have an 8 student limit

-I understand that in order to take part in class I will be required to fill out a Waiver

-Cancelled sessions due to illness/death in immediate family require a doctor's note for full refund minus a $25.00 administration fee ...classes attended, or missed without calling the instructor will not be refunded...refund is based on the session/s fee divided by the number of classes

-Non-medical cancellations: 1) A refund or credit minus Admin. Fee of $25.00 if cancelled prior to 3 weeks in advance of class start date 2) No refunds or credits will apply if registration is cancelled within 3 weeks prior to Session start date, or during session
